

Source: International Center for Tax and Development (Revenues); Official and Private Flows (OECD); Remittances (The World Bank)

Note: Constant sample comprises of 19 resource dependent countries and 58 non-resource dependent countries; Resource dependence country defined as a country whose non-renewable natural resources comprised at least 20 percent of total exports or 20 percent of natural resource revenues, based on a 2006-2010 average.